

Fall Protection for Roofing – French

Course Description

This course explores the critical importance of fall protection in the roofing industry. Participants will learn how to recognize fall hazards, implement effective safety measures, and foster a culture of safety. (French Version)