How Do I Track Employee Progress and Course Completions?

The LMS includes a comprehensive analytics dashboard that allows you to track course completions, completion rates, overdue learners, and engagement. This data helps you make informed decisions and measure the impact of your safety training programs.