

Foodborne Illness Bulletin

An overview of foodborne illness as a potential hazard in restaurants and food services.

From the CDC

- Foodborne disease is caused by consuming contaminated food/drink
- More than 250 different Foodborne diseases
- Common symptoms: nausea/vomiting, stomach cramps, & diarrhea
- Common diseases: Salmonella, E. Coli, Campylobacter, Calicivirus
- 76 million annual cases of foodborne disease in the United States
- Largely preventable by following safe work practices...