Hot Work Safety – Video (French Version)

About this Course

Any operation involving sparks or flames—like welding, cutting, or soldering—requires extra care. Hot work procedures aren’t just important for operators but for everyone nearby. By understanding the risks and following safe practices, we can keep the work area safe and prevent serious accidents.