

Machine Guarding Infographic

Beyond the Point of Operation

Look Out for Powered:

- Flywheels
- Pulleys
- Belts
- Chains
- Couplings
- Spindles
- Cams
- Gears

And Other Moving Parts that:

- Reciprocate
- Rotate
- Transverse
- Auxiliary

Machine Guarding Myths

New Machines Are Safe: Yes and No

Older Machines Are "Grandfathered": Nope

OSHA Rules Are Just Guidelines: No

Not Sure What to Do? Alert a Supervisor

Plant Managers Should:

- Perform machine risk assessments
- Get training and train workers
- Have written plans
- Document injuries

Don't Forget to Protect Your Eyes & Face

THE LAW: OSHA 29 CFR 1910.133

The Consensus Standard on Quality, Impact, Specifications:

ANSI Z87.1-2015

Eyewear Needs to Protect Against:

- Flying particles
- Molten metals
- Liquid chemicals
- Gases and vapors
- Light radiation
- Side protection

Source: <https://www.mscdirect.com>