

PPE in the Workplace – Video (French Version)

About this Course

It's important to think carefully about what you wear each day on the job, taking into account the work environment and any protective needs. The right clothing not only keeps you safe but also helps you work comfortably and focus on the job at hand.