

Respiratory Protection – Video

About the Course

Respiratory protection involves using masks, respirators, or other protective devices to safeguard workers from inhaling hazardous substances such as dust, fumes, vapors, and gases.