

Talent Acquisition – Onboarding – HR Course

Employee onboarding is the process of providing new hires with the resources they need to successfully integrate with a company, culture, and new role. This course will cover the phases of onboarding and some best practices on onboarding both in person and remotely.